

Boyce Thompson Arboretum & Queen Creek Olive Mill

From The Garden To The Grove

Experience the lush beauty of the Sonoran Desert at Boyce Thompson Arboretum, Arizona's oldest and largest botanical garden. On your self-guided tour, you will see plant collections from the world's deserts, historic buildings, and hidden gardens along miles of trails.

Learn how olive oil is made during the Olive Oil 101 class and tour at Queen Creek Olive Mill. Relax and indulge in a delicious farm-to-table lunch in the grove.
