Come From Away* at Phoenix Theater Company

On September 11, 2001, following the closure of US airspace, 38 planes carrying more than 7,000 passengers were forced to land in the small town of Gander, Newfoundland. The residents of Gander opened their homes, and their hearts, to those displaced passengers. Visit the Phoenix Theater Company for their production of Come From Away and leave with an appreciation of true human connection in the most trying of circumstances.

The Stockyards Steakhouse

‘A Taste of Arizona History’. Step back in time to 1919 and the site of the Phoenix Stockyards, where nearly 40,000 head of cattle were housed, making it the world’s largest feedlot. In 1947, The Stockyards Restaurant opened and became a favorite gathering place for cattlemen, celebrities, bankers and politicians. Today, the Stockyards remains one of Arizona’s most unique and in-demand dining destinations.
