Day 1: Arrive in Salt Lake City and settle in before meeting your group for a warm welcome dinner.

Day 2: Take in the highlights of the city, then venture to Dead Horse Point State Park for breathtaking canyon views, ending the day with a riverside BBQ and an unforgettable sound-and-light show under the stars.

Day 3: Discover the dramatic red rock formations of Arches National Park, followed by a relaxing float trip and picnic along the scenic Colorado River.

Day 4: Travel to Mesa Verde National Park to explore ancient cliff dwellings, then continue on to charming Durango for a two-night stay.

Day 5: Ride the iconic Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad, winding through spectacular mountain landscapes and rugged wilderness.

Day 6: Experience another legendary rail journey aboard the Cumbres & Toltec Scenic Railroad, crossing high mountain passes and historic mining country.

Day 7: Explore the rich culture and adobe charm of Santa Fe, including historic landmarks along the Old Santa Fe Trail, like San Miguel Mission and Loretto Chapel. This evening enjoy a festive farewell dinner.

Day 8: Depart via Albuquerque, taking home unforgettable memories of the Southwest's landscapes, history, and rail adventures.
